Marking System/Honor Roll

All courses excluding Physical Education are used in determining class rank and Honor Roll. Parish Hill utilizes a 4.0 scale to determine the academic honor roll. High Honor Roll is earned with a quarterly GPA of 3.6 or better (not weighted). Honor Roll is earned with a quarterly GPA of 3.0 - 3.59 (not weighted).

SAT Scores

Listed below are the mean scores for the SAT I - 100% of seniors participate in the SAT I administration last year.

	CR	M	W
2016	487	481	489
	EBRW	M	Essay
2017	558	548	4, 4, 4
2018	550	542	3, 6, 3
2019	505	498	5, 4, 6

It should be noted that these scores can vary widely from year to year because of class size. For the last four years our average graduating class has been 35 students.

Graduation Requirements

Credit requirements for graduation are 24 total credits which include the following areas:

English	4 credits
Mathematics	4 credits
Phys Ed	1.5 credits
Health	.5
Science	3 credits
Social Studies	3 credits
Electives (varied)	8 credits

Class Rank

Class rank is determined through a weighting system whose values are given below in the Course Offerings section. An A+ in a heterogeneous course is equal to a 4.3 on a 4.0 scale. An A+ in an honors course is equal to a 4.8 on a 4.0 scale. An A+ in an AP/Honors UCONN Coop course is equal to a 5.3 on a 4.0 scale. The sum of the weighted grades is then divided by the sum of the attempted credits to arrive at class rank. Class rank is recalculated at the end of the year.

Enrichment Opportunities

Talented students in academics, music, theater, dance, creative writing and visual arts are afforded the opportunity to attend summer enrichment programs.

Sports

All sports are offered at the Junior Varsity and Varsity levels. Parish Hill offers participation in Soccer, Basketball, Cheerleading, Cross-Country, Track and Field, Bowling, Softball, Golf and Baseball. Students may also pursue various sports such as gymnastics, swimming, and wrestling through association with other area schools.
